Great educational experience in beautiful nature

Kapraluv Mlyn is located in the Czech Republic near the city of Brno. 100 km north from Vienna. The 5 hectares property is surrounded by unique environment of the Moravian Karst protected natural area.

There are several accommodation options: 23 beds in small rooms with own bathrooms, 38 beds in rooms with shared bathrooms. 120 places in the campsite. Large hall, classroom, clubroom, dining room and huge outdoor laboratory create enough space even for parallel meetings and educational activities. Catering is provided either by Kaprálův mlýn professionals or guests can cook on their own.

The place is named after the inventor Alex Kaprál and his spirit is followed even today by installation of eco-friendly technologies that minimize carbon footprint of the centre. Solar power, local wood and ground-heat supply warm water and heating to the buildings.

Kaprálův mlýn is a proud member of the Scout Centres of Excellence for Nature, Environment and Sustainability network and a certified provider of quality environmental education.

The scout centre also provides long and short term opportunities for international volunteers.
